Article 3 (Purpose and Scope of this Agreement)

1. This agreement applies to all relations between the User and our Company regarding the use of this service.
2. Aside from this Agreement, the rules and regulations regarding the use of this Service that we announce separately on other occasions, such as usage rules, guidelines, etc (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Additional Rules”) will be combined with this agreement and will constitute as a part of this Agreement, regardless of the name. If there is any conflict between this Agreement and Additional Rules, the Additional Rules shall take precedence.

Article 4 (User Account Registration)

1. Upon agreeing to these Terms of Use, the User may apply for an account registration for use of this Service by providing the necessary information for account registration (hereinafter referred to as

- “Registration Information”) designated by our Company in the manner specified by our Company.
2. When a User applies for an account registration, the User must provide true, accurate and complete Registration Information, and must always revise the information to keep it updated.
 3. A User may only register for one account per person.
 4. We may reject the User’s application for account registration if any of the following apply.
 - (1) In the event that the Registration Information provided to us by the User contains false or inaccurate information
 - (2) The User is a minor, an adult with a legal guardian, a conservator, or a person under curatorship, and you have not obtained the consent of your legal representative, a guardian, a conservator, or a person under curatorship.
 - (3) If you have been subjected to a suspension of use or other disciplinary action by the Company due to a violation of the Terms of Use in the past.
 - (4) In the case that our company judges that there is an act or a possibility of an act that obstructs or interferes with our company's operation, service provision, or other users' use.
 - (5) In the case that the User falls under the category of Antisocial Forces.
 - (6) In the event that the User violates the representations and warranties in Article 13 or we deem that there is a possibility of such violation.
 - (7) When we judge that there is a possibility that the User may use this service for criminal acts such as fraud.
 - (8) When we deem that there is a possibility of using this service in a way that violates this agreement.
 - (9) When the User has already registered an account.
 - (10) In the case that we judged that it is inappropriate to accept the account registration.
 5. When a change occurs in the registered information, the User shall promptly report it in the manner specified by our company. Even if a disadvantage is caused to the user due to negligence of notification of the change, we shall not be responsible for it. Even if there is a notification of change after the fact, our company may rely on the information before the notification of change for transactions and various procedures that were conducted before the notification of change of the registered information.

Article 5 (Account Management)

1. When a User has registered an account, the User shall strictly manage and keep the information to log in to his/her own account (hereinafter referred to as “Account Information”). They shall not allow a third party to use the account, lend, transfer, change the name of, sell, or trade it. The User shall be responsible for any damage caused by insufficient management of the Account Information, mistake in use, or use by a third party, and we shall not be responsible for any damage caused by such use.
2. We may consider any act performed using the Account Information as the act of the User himself/herself and, in that case, the User shall bear all responsibilities that arise as a result.
3. When the User's account information is stolen or leaked, or when it is found that a third party is using the Account Information, the User shall immediately notify us to that effect and follow our instructions. When damage is caused by theft, leakage, etc. of the User's account information or unauthorized use or access by a third party, the User shall compensate us or the third party for the damage except when the occurrence of the damage is caused by our willful act or gross negligence.
4. We do not accept any responsibility for any loss or damage to the cryptographic assets or NFTs (including NFTs) in the wallet managed by the User due to malfunction or loss of the communication terminal used by the User, attacks by malware, spyware, viruses, hacking or cracking by a third party, mismanagement of account information, etc. or errors in use, or use by a third party. We will not be liable for any loss or damage including theft, loss or unavailability of cryptographic assets or NFTs (including this NFT) in the wallet due to use by a third party, except in the case of willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of our company.
5. The Company may delete an account that has been inactive for more than one year since its last access without prior notice to the User.
6. All rights of use of the User for this service will be terminated when the account is deleted, regardless of the reason. Even if the User deletes the account by mistake, the account cannot be restored.

Article 6 (Suspension of this service, etc.)

In the following cases, we may temporarily suspend all or part of this service without prior notice to the User. In such a case, even if damage is caused to the User, we shall not be liable for any damage except in the case of willful misconduct or gross negligence on our part. If either of these situations is assumed in advance, we will inform the User in a way that we deem appropriate.

- (1) When maintenance, inspection, repair, or modification of the system (including servers, communication lines, power supplies, and buildings housing them) is performed periodically or urgently.
- (2) When this service cannot be provided due to the failure or malfunction of servers, communication lines, or other facilities, or for any other reason.
- (3) When our company's assets are stolen by hacking or other means.
- (4) When it is necessary to conduct an investigation of unauthorized use of an account.
- (5) When an abnormality occurs in the system necessary for the provision of this service.
- (6) When a problem related to the handling of this NFT arises due to the occurrence of a hard fork, etc.
- (7) When this service cannot be provided due to earthquake, lightning, flood, water, power failure, riot, disturbance, labor dispute, etc.
- (8) When war, natural disasters, incidents, or other non-permanent situations occur or are likely to occur.
- (9) When this service cannot be provided due to laws and ordinances or measures based on laws and ordinances.
- (10) When we reasonably judge that temporary suspension of service is necessary for operational or technical reasons.

Article 7 (Scholarship System)

1. Scholarship is a system under which the Product or NFT is lent or borrowed amongst users (the user who lends is called "Owner" and the user who borrows is called "Scholar"). The period during which such lending and borrowing is conducted is referred to as the "Scholarship Period"
2. During the Scholarship Period, any information regarding the Scholar, including Token Points earned by the Scholar or any other information that the Owner and Scholar have agreed to share in advance, shall be automatically sent to the Owner.
3. The Operator shall not provide any compensation and shall not be liable for any loss or damage in relation to the implementation of the Scholarship.

Article 8 (Use of the Product or NFT on the Service)

1. Users who own the Product or NFT may earn Token Points on the Service.
2. Owner accounts may only earn Token Points through the Scholarship System using the Product within the Service.
3. Each Product or NFT in the Service has a specified validity period for use. Token Points cannot be earned for Products or NFTs that have exceeded their validity period.
4. The validity period of the NFTs in the Service can be checked in the NFT metadata and also within the Service.
5. The validity period of the Product can be checked on the Service.

Article 9 (Conversion of Token Points)

1. Token Points earned on the Service will be automatically converted to tokens at a ratio of 100 to 1 at the end of the month in which they are earned.
2. The converted tokens will be transferred to the token point holder within 5 business days.

Article 10 (Other company's service)

1. In order to use this Service, it is necessary to use the service or system provided by a business operator other than our company designated by our company. We will not take any responsibility for the services or systems provided by businesses other than our company.
2. When a User uses the services associated with the provision of this service (including services related to blockchain), we will not be liable for any damages caused by the use of such services or systems. When using the services associated with the provision of this service (including services related to blockchain), the User understands that it is necessary to follow the terms and conditions applied between the User and the provider of the relevant service, and agrees to such terms and conditions before using the service. We reserve the right to take any and all measures such as suspending the user's account in the event of a suspected violation of these terms and conditions by the user.

3. Users shall prepare their own self managed wallets for use on this service at their own risk. The user shall not share or transfer the managed wallet connected to this service to a third party.

Article 11 (Prohibited Actions)

The User shall not perform any of the following acts.

- (1) Any act in violation of laws, court judgments, decisions, orders, or legally binding administrative measures.
- (2) Any act offensive to public order and morals, criminal acts, acts that incite, aid, assist, or forewarn others of criminal acts, or acts that have the potential to do so.

- stipulated in the preceding items.
2. In the event that there is a dispute between a user and another user, the owner of intellectual property rights related to this service, or any other third party, the dispute shall be resolved at the user's own expense and responsibility. We shall not be responsible for any dispute between the user and the owner of the intellectual property right or any other third party regarding this service.
 3. In the event that we suffer damages (including legal fees) as a result of a dispute as set forth in the preceding paragraph, we will jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless the Company from and against such damages.
 4. We may, at our reasonable discretion, provide information or other assistance to a third party regarding a dispute between a User and another User or a third party, without obtaining the consent of the said User.
 5. Notwithstanding Article 1, in the event that we are liable to the User for damages due to negligence (excluding gross negligence), the amount of such damages shall be the actual amount of the damages arising from the User's default. In the event that we are liable to the user for damages due to default or illegal act by the user, the maximum amount of the damages shall be limited to the direct and ordinary damages actually caused and the total amount of the goods purchased by the user, or ¥10,000, whichever is higher.

Article 17 (Disclaimer Warranty)

1. We do not warrant that the Service, ZAIHO, SAFARI GEM, NFT, Target Data, or Blockchain are safe, reliable, accurate, complete, valid, fit for a particular purpose, defective in security, communication failure, inaccessibility, errors or bugs, harmful items such as computer viruses, infringement, loss of data created by the user, or any other defect in fact or under law (including, but not limited to, defects related to security, reliability, accuracy, completeness, effectiveness, fitness for a particular purpose, communication failure, (including safety, reliability, accuracy, completeness, validity, conformity to a specific purpose, security defects, communication failure, inaccessibility, errors or bugs, harmful computer viruses, infringement of rights, loss of data created by the user, etc.) The Company does not guarantee, either explicitly or implicitly, that there will be no damage or loss of data created by the user (including but not limited to, damages caused by computer viruses, etc.).
2. We do not guarantee that any sales contract concluded for this product will not be invalid, canceled, terminated or otherwise prevented from being concluded or validated.
3. The user shall investigate whether or not the use of this service violates the internal rules of computer viruses applied to the user based on his/her own responsibility and expense, and we do not guarantee that the use of this service by the User conforms to these rules in any way.
4. We do not guarantee that there will be no future enactment or change of laws and regulations or related taxation systems for NFTs and crypto assets. Users understand and acknowledge that regulations and policies regarding blockchain technology are uncertain and that new regulations or policies may have a significant impact on the development of this service and the practical use of this NFT. We may take measures such as restricting access to the subject data or making it closed to the public, if necessary, in the event of changes in laws and regulations.
5. We do not guarantee the value, stability or legality of ZAIHO, SAFARI GEM or this NFT.
6. When our website contains links to other websites, we do not guarantee any information obtained from those other websites.
7. The Company will ensure that SAFARI PUZZLE and its associated services will continue to function in the future.
8. We do not guarantee that the user will be able to access all the products including NFTs and tokens purchased through this service, and that the user will not be compensated by us in such a case.
9. The user shall use this service after confirming and accepting that he/she will not be able to use the service.

Article 18 (Change and abolition of service)

1. We may change, add or cancel all or part of the contents of this service without prior notice to the users and the users shall accept this in advance. In the event that all or a part of the contents of this service are changed or eliminated, we will endeavor to notify the users in advance in a way that we deem appropriate as far as is possible in our business. In this case, the User understands and agrees in advance that this Product or the data related to this Product may disappear or that access to such data may become impossible.

3. The change or cancellation based on Paragraph 1 or Paragraph 2 does not constitute default by us or an illegal act, and even if damage is caused to the user as a result, we will not be liable for it. Even if we are liable, the maximum amount will be the amount specified in Article 136, Paragraph 5.

Article 19 (Confidentiality)

1. Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, neither our company nor the user shall, without the prior consent of the other party, divulge, display or provide to a third party any information obtained in connection with this agreement or any other confidential matters of the other party, either during the term of this agreement or after the termination of this agreement. In this agreement, the person in the position where the party has or will disclose confidential information to the other party is called the “Discloser”, and the person in the position where the party has received or will receive the confidential information from the other party is called the “Disclosed Party”.
2. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, information that falls under any of the following items will be excluded from confidential information.
 - (1) Information that is already public knowledge at the time of acquisition of the confidential information
 - (2) Information which became public knowledge after the acquisition of the confidential information through no fault of the addressee.
 - (3) Information which was already in the possession of the addressee prior to the acquisition of the confidential information
 - (4) Information that has been independently developed by the addressee after the acquisition of the confidential information, without the use of the confidential information.
 - (5) Information which has been entered legally without any obligation of confidentiality from a third party to whom the addressee has a legitimate right after the acquisition of the confidential information.
3. Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, when requested by the law or a national agency, etc., or when we deem it necessary, we may disclose or exchange information about the user to a national agency, etc., or to a party with whom we have concluded a confidentiality agreement.

Article 20 (Notification)

1. Unless otherwise stipulated in this agreement, the notice from our company to the user shall be made by sending a digital mail, posting on this service site, posting on SNS, or by any other method that our company deems appropriate according to the contents of the notice.
2. In the case that we provide notice to the User by posting on this service site or SNS in accordance with the preceding paragraph, the notice shall be deemed to have reached the User at the time when it is posted on this service site or SNS.

Article 21 (Modification of these Terms of Use)

1. The Company may modify these Terms and Conditions to the extent required by law in any of the following cases.
 - (1) When the change of this agreement conforms to the general interest of the user.
 - (2) When the change of this agreement is not contrary to the purpose of this agreement and is reasonable in light of the necessity of the change, the reasonableness of the content after the change, the content of the change and other circumstances pertaining to the change.
2. We will publicize the contents and effective date of the changes in the preceding paragraph by posting them on the service site or by other appropriate means. The change shall be applied from the day on which a reasonable period of time determined by us has elapsed.

Article 22 (Handling of Personal Information)

We will handle the User's personal information appropriately in accordance with the “Privacy Policy” which we have separately stipulated and the User agrees to this.

Article 23 (Taxes and Public Dues)

The tax and public dues imposed on the users shall be borne by the users. The type and amount of tax and public dues imposed on the user shall be confirmed by the responsibility of the user.

Article 24 (Intellectual Property Rights)

1. The intellectual property rights and all other property rights related to this service and the components of this service site (applications, software, code, data, images, texts, demos, and other designs, works, know-how, etc.) belong to us or to third parties who have licensed their use to us, and are not transferred to the user by the conclusion of this agreement. This agreement does not transfer to the user or grant a license for use beyond that stipulated in these terms and conditions. All software used in this service contains property rights and trade secrets protected by laws and regulations concerning intellectual property rights.

Article 25 (Prohibition of transfer of rights and obligations)

1. The user may not transfer, succeed, collateralize or otherwise dispose of the rights and obligations based on this agreement or the position in the contract to a third party. However, this shall not apply if otherwise stipulated in this agreement or if there is prior written consent from the Company.
2. When we transfer the business pertaining to this Service to another company, we may transfer the position on this contract, the rights and obligations based on this agreement, the user's registration information and other information on the user to the transferee of the business transfer. The User agrees in advance to such transfer by agreeing to the terms and conditions of this agreement. The transfer of business stipulated in this section includes all cases in which the business pertaining to this service is transferred, such as company split.

Article 26 (Surviving Clauses)

Even after the termination of this agreement, the provisions of Article 2 (Definitions), Article 8 (Prohibited conduct), Article 16 (Disclaimer, etc.), Article 17 (Disclaimer warranty), Article 18 (Change and abolition of service), Article 19 (Confidentiality), Article 22 (Handling of personal information), Article 23 (Taxes and public charges), Article 27 (Miscellaneous provisions) and other provisions separately stipulated by us shall remain effective between us and the relevant user.

Article 27 (Miscellaneous Provisions)

1. Even if all or part of any provision of this agreement is determined to be invalid or unenforceable by law, the remaining part of the provision shall remain in full force and effect.
2. If any doubt arises concerning the interpretation of this agreement or any matter not stipulated in this agreement, or if any dispute arises concerning this agreement, the user and our company shall consult with each other in good faith and attempt to settle the dispute.
3. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of Singapore and any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be referred to arbitration under the jurisdiction of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre.
